NATURE, OBJECTIVE AND SCOPE OF AUDIT

| | CORRECT/INCORRECT TYPE QUESTIONS & ANSWERS (Comment with short reasons whether following statements are correct or incorrect) |
|------|--|
| 1. | The basic objective of audit does not change with reference to nature, size or form of an entity. |
| Ans. | Correct: An audit is an independent examination of financial information of any entity, whether profit oriented or not, and irrespective of its size or legal form, when such an examination is conducted with a view to expressing an opinion thereon. It is clear that the basic objective of auditing, i.e., expression of opinion on financial statements does not change with reference to nature, size or form of an entity. |
| 2. | The purpose of an audit is to enhance the degree of confidence of intended users in the financial statements. |
| Ans. | Correct: As per SA 200 "Overall Objectives of the Independent Auditor and the Conduct of an Audit in Accordance with Standards on Auditing", the purpose of an audit is to enhance the degree of confidence of intended users in the financial statements. This is achieved by the expression of an opinion by the auditor on whether the financial statements are prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with an applicable financial reporting framework. |
| 3. | The auditor is not expected to, and cannot, reduce audit risk to zero and cannot therefore obtain absolute assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement due to fraud or error. |
| Ans. | Correct: As per SA 200 "Overall Objectives of the Independent Auditor and the Conduct of an Audit in Accordance with Standards on Auditing", the auditor is not expected to, and cannot, reduce audit risk to zero and cannot therefore obtain absolute assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement due to fraud or error. This is because there are inherent limitations of an audit, which result in most of the audit evidence on which the auditor draws conclusions and bases the auditor's opinion being persuasive rather than conclusive. |

| 4. | Lalji Bhai has purchased shares of a company listed on NSE. The audited financial statements of the company provide picture of healthy financial performance having robust turnover, low debt and good profits. On above basis, he is absolutely satisfied that money invested by him is safe and there is no chance of losing his money . Do audited results and audit reports of companies provide such assurance to investors like Lalji Bhai? Is thinking of Lalji Bhai correct? |
| Ans. | An audit does not provide assurance to investor in shares regarding safety of his money. Share prices of securities are affected by range of factors. An audit only provides reasonable assurance that financial statements are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error. Hence, thinking of Lalji Bhai is not correct. |
| 5. | Good deeds Limited is engaged in business of recycling of wastes from dumping grounds of municipal corporation of Indore to usable manure. It is, in this way, also, helping to make the city clean. During course of audit by Zoha & Zoha, a firm of auditors, it is observed by auditors that company has received a notice from Central Bench of National Green Tribunal for not following certain environmental regulations involving imposition of hefty monetary penalty on the company . The company is yet to reply to the notice. The auditors point out that same is not stated in notes to accounts in financial statements. The company points out that auditors are going beyond scope of their work. Does such a matter fall within scope of audit? |
| Ans. | Proper disclosure of financial information is well within scope of audit. |
| 6. | A huge fire broke out in NOIDA plant of KT Limited. Plant assets comprising building, machinery and inventories were insured from branch of a public sector insurance company. Apart from an insurance surveyor who was deputed for assessing loss, the regional office of insurance PSU also appointed a CA for verification of books of accounts/ financial records of the company and circumstances surrounding the loss . |------------|--|
| Ans. | Appointment of CA for verification of books of accounts/financial records and circumstances surrounding the loss is for a specific objective to determine genuineness of loss and any issue affecting liability of insurance company. It is an investigation and not in nature of audit report. |
| 7. | Zeeba Products is a partnership firm engaged in trading of designer dresses. The firm has appointed JJ & Co, |
| , , | Chartered accountants to audit their accounts for a year. The auditors were satisfied with control systems of |
| | |
| | firm, carried out required procedures and necessary verifications. In particular, they carried out sample |
| | checking of purchases, traced purchase bills to GST portal and also made confirmations from suppliers. They |
| | were satisfied with audit evidence obtained by them as part of audit exercise. An audit report was submitted |
| | to the firm giving an opinion that financial statements reflected true and fair view of state of affairs of the |
| | firm. |
| | However, later on, it was discovered that purchase manager responsible for procuring dresses from one location was also booking fake purchases of small values by colluding with unethical dealers. Payments to these dealers were also made in connivance with accountant through banking channel. The partners of firm blame auditors for futile audit exercise. Are partners of firm correct in their view point? Imagine any probable reason for such a situation. |
| Ans. | It is example of failure of internal controls of the firm. The internal control has not operated due to collusion |
| | between employees which is a limitation of internal control itself. The auditor has relied upon internal |
| | controls. It is very nature of financial reporting that management is responsible for devising suitable internal |
| - | controls. This is an inherent limitation of audit. |
| 8. | The management of Exotic Tours and Travels Limited requests its auditor Raja &Co.to provide an assurance report on the financial information for first quarter of a year by skipping required detailed procedures. Can Raja & Co. provide such a report? What would be nature of such a report? Would it be necessary for them |
| | to obtain sufficient appropriate evidence in such a case? |
| Ans. | Such report would be in nature of "review". However, auditors would have to obtain sufficient appropriate |
| | evidence. |
| 9. | CA. P Babu is conducting audit of financial statements of Quick Buy Private Limited. He was not able to obtain external confirmations from certain debtors due to practical difficulties and peculiar circumstances. However, such a procedure is mandated under one of Standards on Auditing. Unable to obtain external confirmations from these debtors, he relied upon sale details to these parties, e- invoices, e-way bills and also traced payments from these parties in bank accounts of the company. He was reasonably satisfied with audit evidence obtained. Is there any other reporting duty cast upon him relating to not following a mandated procedure in one of Standards on Auditing? |
| Ans. | He is required to document how alternative procedures performed achieve the purpose of required |
| 1115 | procedure. Reason for departure has to be documented unless it is clear. His report should draw attention to |
| | such departure. |

AUDIT STRATEGY, AUDIT PLANNING AND AUDIT PROGRAMME

| CORRECT/INCORRECT TYPE QUESTIONS & ANSWERS | | |
|---|---|--|
| | (Comment with short reasons whether following statements are correct or incorrect) | |
| 1. | The establishment of the overall audit strategy and the detailed audit plan are not necessarily discrete or sequential processes, but are closely inter-related since changes in one may result in consequential changes to the other. | |
| Ans. | Correct: Once the overall audit strategy has been established, an audit plan can be developed to achieve the audit objectives through the efficient use of the auditor's resources. The establishment of the overall audit strategy and the detailed audit plan are not necessarily discrete or sequential processes, but are closely interrelated since changes in one may result in consequential changes to the other. | |
| 2. | Establishing an overall audit strategy that sets the scope, timing and direction of the audit, and that guides the development of the audit plan is prerogative of the management. | |
| Ans. | Incorrect. The auditor shall establish an overall audit strategy that sets the scope, timing and direction of the audit, and that guides the development of the audit plan. | |
| 3. | Planning is a discrete phase of an audit. | |
| Ans. | Incorrect. Planning is not a discrete phase of an audit, but rather a continual and iterative process that often begin shortly after (or in connection with) the completion of the previous audit and continues until the completion of the current audit engagement. Planning, however, includes consideration of the timing of certain activities and audit procedures that need to be completed prior to the performance of further audit procedures. | |
| 4. | A detailed Audit Programme once prepared for a business can be used for all business under all circumstances. | |
| Ans. | Incorrect: Businesses vary in nature, size and composition; work which is suitable to one business may not be suitable to others; efficiency and operation of internal controls and the exact nature of the service to be rendered by the auditor are the other factors that vary from assignment to assignment. On account of such variations, evolving one audit programme applicable to all business under all circumstances is not practicable. | |
| 5. | The audit plan is more detailed than the overall audit strategy. | |
| Ans. | Correct. The audit plan is more detailed than the overall audit strategy that includes the nature, timing and extent of audit procedures to be performed by engagement team members. Planning for these audit procedures takes place over the course of the audit as the audit plan for the engagement develops. | |
| 6. | Revision in Plan | |
| | A well designed and drafted audit plan and audit strategy which takes care of all the uncertainties and conditions, need not be changed during the course of audit. (Nov-2018) OR | |
| | The auditor should update and revise the audit plan as and when required, however, the overall audit strategy once established cannot be changed during the course of audit. (MTP-May-2021) OR | |
| | Once the audit plan has been drafted and communicated, it is obligatory on the auditor to follow the same. (May-2022) | |

F.A.S.T CA Inter: Auditing & Ethics

| Ans. | Incorrect: The auditor shall update and change the overall audit strategy and the audit plan as necessary during the course of the audit. As a result of unexpected events, changes in conditions, or the audit evidence obtained from the results of audit procedures, the auditor may need to modify the overall audit strategy and audit plan and thereby the resulting planned nature, timing and extent of further audit procedures, based on the revised consideration of assessed risks. | |
|-------------|---|--|
| 7. | It is not necessary for the auditor to periodically review the audit programme. (Nov-2020) | |
| Ans. | Incorrect: There should be periodic review of the audit programme to assess whether the same continues to be adequate for obtaining requisite knowledge and evidence about the transactions. Unless this is done, any change in the business policy of the client may not be adequately known, and consequently, audit work may be carried on, on the basis of an obsolete programme and for this negligence, the whole audit may be held as negligently conducted and the auditor may have to face legal consequences. | |
| 8. | Mr. W, one of the team members of auditor of Different Limited was of the view that understanding the Internal Control of Different Limited will not help in developing an Audit Programme. | |
| Ans. | Incorrect: Understanding the Internal Control of Different Limited will help in developing an Audit Programme because it will assist the auditor and his team to understand as to how much they can rely on internal control of the company and what audit procedures would be appropriate to be used during the course of audit. | |
| 9. | Development of an audit plan is important before the establishment of the overall audit strategy to address the various matters. (RTP-Nov-2022) | |
| Ans. | Incorrect: As per SA-300, "Planning an Audit of Financial Statements", the auditor shall establish an overall audit strategy that sets the scope, timing and direction of the audit, and that guides the development of the audit plan. Once the overall audit strategy has been established, an audit plan can be developed to address the various matters identified in the overall audit strategy, taking into account the need to achieve the audit objectives through the efficient use of the auditor's resources. | |

| | The nature, timing and extent of planned risk assessment procedures, as determined under SA 315 "Identifying and Assessing the Risks of Material Misstatement through Understanding the Entity and Its Environment". |
| | (ii) The nature, timing and extent of planned further audit procedures at the assertion level, as determined under SA 330 "The Auditor's Responses to Assessed Risks". |

| (iii) | Other planned audit procedures that are required to be carried out so that the engagement complies |

| | with SAs. |

The audit plan is more detailed than the overall audit strategy that includes the nature, timing and extent of audit procedures to be performed by engagement team members. Planning for these audit procedures takes place over the course of the audit as the audit plan for the engagement develops.

Example

Planning of the auditor's risk assessment procedures occurs early in the audit process.

However, planning the nature, timing and extent of specific further audit procedures depends on the outcome of those risk assessment procedures. In addition, the auditor may begin the execution of further audit procedures for some classes of transactions, account balances and disclosures before planning all remaining further audit procedures.

| | Planning is not a discrete phase of an audit, but rather a continual and iterative process that often begins shortly after the completion of the previous audit and continues until the completion of the current audit engagement. Analyse and Explain.(Nov-2018, RTP-Nov-2019) |
| Ans. | In the context of recurring audits, as per SA-300, "Planning an Audit of Financial Statements", Planning is not a discrete phase of an audit, but rather a continual and iterative process that often begins shortly after (or in connection with) the completion of the previous audit and continues until the completion of the current audit engagement. Planning, however, includes consideration of the timing of certain activities and audit procedures that need to be completed prior to the performance of further audit procedures. For example, planning includes the need to consider, prior to the auditor's identification and assessment of the risks of material misstatement, such matters as: The analytical procedures to be applied as risk assessment procedures. Obtaining a general understanding of the legal and regulatory framework applicable to the entity and how the entity is complying with that framework. The determination of materiality. The involvement of experts. The performance of other risk assessment procedures. |
| 22. | Discuss how performing preliminary engagement activities as part of planning an audit assists auditor. (SM) |
| Ans. | Performing preliminary engagement activities assists the auditor in identifying and evaluating events or circumstances that may affect auditor's ability to plan and perform audit engagement. |
| 23. | Audit Programme Evolving one audit programme applicable to all audit engagements under all circumstances is not practicable. |
| | Explain? (MTP-May-2022, RTP-May2019, RTP-May-2018) |
| Ans. | Businesses vary in nature, size and composition; work which is suitable to one business may not be suitable to others; efficiency and operation of internal controls and the exact nature of the service to be rendered by the auditor are the other factors that vary from assignment to assignment. On account of such variations, evolving one audit programme applicable to all businesses under all circumstances is not practicable. However, it becomes a necessity to specify in detail in the audit programme the nature of work to be done so that no time will be wasted on matters not pertinent to the engagement and any special matter or any specific situation can be taken care of. |

| Ans. | The Assistant Engaged – Be Encouraged to Keep an Open Mind: To start with, an auditor having regard to the nature, size and composition of the business and the dependability of the internal control and the given scope of work, should frame a programme which should aim at providing for a minimum essential work which may be termed as a standard programme. As experience is gained by actually carrying out the work, the programme may be altered to take care of situations which were left out originally, but are found relevant for the particular concern. Similarly, if any work originally provided for proves beyond doubt to be unnecessary or irrelevant, it may be dropped. The assistant engaged in the job should be encouraged to keep an open mind beyond the programme given to him. He should be instructed to note and report significant matters coming to his notice, to his seniors or to the partners or proprietor of the firm engaged for doing the audit. In the given case, the attitude of assistants of TP & Co. is not justified. They should keep an open mind and go beyond the programme to take care of newer areas of the business of KSR Ltd. into which the Company has diversified. |

| 20. | Evidence is the very basis for formulation of opinion and an audit programme is designed to provide for that by prescribing procedures and techniques. Analyse and explain with the help of example of evidence in respect of Sales. (RTP-May-2020) |
| Ans. | Evidence is the very basis for formulation of opinion and an audit programme is designed to provide for that by prescribing procedures and techniques. What is best evidence for testing the accuracy of any assertion is a matter of expert knowledge and experience. This is the primary task before the auditor when he draws up the audit programme. Transactions are varied in nature and impact; procedures to be prescribed depend on |
| | prior knowledge of what evidence is reasonably available in respect of each transaction. |
| | Example |
| | Sales are evidenced by: |
| | (i) invoices raised by the client; |
| | (ii) price list; |
| | (iii) forwarding notes to client; |
| | (iv) inventory-issue records; |
| | (v) sales managers' advice to the inventory section; |
| | (vi) acknowledgements of the receipt of goods by the customers; and |

| | OR |
| | Disadvantages of the Use of an Audit Programme (MTP-May-2022, Nov-2018, MTP-Nov-2018) |
| Ans. | Advantages and Disadvantages of an Audit Programme |
| | The advantages of an audit programme are: |
| | (a) It provides the assistant carrying out the audit with total and clear set of instructions of the work generally to be done. |
| | (b) It is essential, particularly for major audits, to provide a total perspective of the work to be performed. |
| | (c) Selection of assistants for the jobs on the basis of capability becomes easier when the work is rationally planned, defined and segregated. |
| | (d) Without a written and pre-determined programme, work is necessarily to be carried out on the basis of some 'mental' plan. In such a situation there is always a danger of ignoring or overlooking certain books and records. Under a properly framed programme, such danger is significantly less and the audit can proceed systematically. |
| | (e) The assistants, by putting their signature on programme, accept the responsibility for the work carried out by them individually and, if necessary, the work done may be traced back to the assistant. |
| | (f) The principal can control the progress of the various audits in hand by examination of audit programmes initiated by the assistants deputed to the jobs for completed work. |
| | |

| | Hirst_sitempis_buckets= uted Jap |
|------|---|
| | (g) It serves as a guide for audits to be carried out in the succeeding year. |
| | (h) A properly drawn up audit programme serves as evidence in the event of any charge of negligence being brought against the auditor. It may be of considerable value in establishing that he exercised reasonable skill and care that was expected of professional auditor. |
| | Some disadvantages are also there in the use of audit programmes but most of these can be removed by following some concrete steps. |
| | The disadvantages are: |
| | (a) The work may become mechanical and particular parts of the programme may be carried out without any understanding of the object of such parts in the whole audit scheme. |
| | (b) The programme often tends to become rigid and inflexible following set grooves; the business may change in its operation of conduct, but the old programme may still be carried on. Changes in staff or internal control may render precaution necessary at points different from those originally decided upon. |
| | (c) Inefficient assistants may take shelter behind the programme i.e. defend deficiencies in their work on the ground that no instruction in the matter is contained therein. |
| | (d) A hard and fast audit programme may kill the initiative of efficient and enterprising assistants. All these disadvantages may be eliminated by imaginative supervision of the work carried on by the assistants; the auditor must have a receptive attitude as regards the assistants; the assistants should be encouraged to observe matters objectively and bring significant matters to the notice of supervisor/principal. |
| 28. | In most of the assertions much of the evidence be drawn and each one should be considered and weighed to ascertain its weight to prove or disprove the assertion. An auditor picks up evidence from a variety of fields. Analyse and explain with the help of examples. (RTP-Nov-2020) |
| Ans. | In most of the assertions much of the evidence be drawn and each one should be considered and weighed to ascertain its weight to prove or disprove the assertion. In this process, an auditor would be in a position to identify the evidence that brings the highest satisfaction to him about the appropriateness or otherwise of the assertion. |
| | An auditor picks up evidence from a variety of fields and it is generally of the following broad types: |
| | (a) Documentary examination, |
| | (b) Physical examination, |
| | (c) Statements and explanation of management, officials and employees, |
| | (d) Statements and explanations of third parties, |
| | (e) Arithmetical calculations by the auditor, |
| | (f) State of internal controls and internal checks, |
| | (g) Inter-relationship of the various accounting data, |
| | (h) Subsidiary and memorandum records, |
| | (i) Minutes, |
| | (j) Subsequent action by the client and by others. |
| | Example |
| | 1. For cash in hand, the best evidence is 'count' |
| | 2. For investment pledged with a bank, the banker's certificate. |
| | 3. For verifying assertions about book debts, the client's ledger invoices, debit notes, credit notes, monthly accounts statement sent to the customers are all evidence: some of these are corroborative, other being complementary. In addition, balance confirmation procedure is often resorted to, to obtain greater satisfaction about the reliability of the assertion. |

F.A.5.1 CA Inter: Auditing & Ethics

| | The auditor, however, has to place appropriate weight on each piece of evidence and accordingly should prescribe the priority of verification. It is true that in all cases one procedure may not bring the highest satisfaction and it may be dangerous for the auditor to ignore any evidence that is available. By the word "available" we do not mean that the evidence available with the client is the only available evidence. The auditor should know what normally should be available in the context of the transaction having regard to the circumstances and usage. |
|------|---|
| 29. | "Purported disadvantages of an audit programme can be overcome". Do you agree? |
| Ans. | Purported disadvantages of audit programme may be eliminated by imaginative supervision of the work carried on by the assistants; the auditor must have a receptive attitude as regards the assistants; the assistants should be encouraged to observe matters objectively and bring significant matters to the notice of supervisor/principal. |
